

Commercial Arts Guild

January 21, meeting

There were 7 members present at the meeting which was held at the Rocking U Restaurant.

Election of officers for 2010

President: Tom Harmon

Vice President: Curt Harris

Treasurer: Carla Towers

Secretary:

Old News

Tom Harmon reported that $100 gift cards were given to November's speakers. Tom also said there was an estimated 45 to 50 people in attendance. $25 in donations was taken in.

$250 was paid out for insurance which will cover the club events through 2010..

Carla Towers reported that there was $91 in the checking account which did not include the $25 from November's event.

New Business

After an open discussion on changing the meeting week day, an approved vote to change the day to Tuesday from Thursday. The new meeting dates will be every third Tuesday of the month starting with February 16.

After open discussion on changing the $30 yearly membership, an approval vote was made to keep the cost at $30.

Everyone agreed that we should have our July art show again this year.

Other events and speakers that the club will be working on for this year are:

1. Taking a trip to a local printer that still uses wood and metal type.
2. Marathon staff photographer Mark Oberst will talk about how he approaches shooting an industrial photo.
3. "Breaking Through the Clutter with Creative Promotions and Direct Marking", presented by Franklin Clay, President/Creative Director, Clay Creative Group, Columbus, Ohio.
4. Work with the Greater Toledo Graphic Arts Association on a trip to Chicago to Print Expo, September
5. Helvetica The Movie
6. Viewing documentary of Big Daddy, Ed Roth
7. Career Day for Findlay Middle School, work with Findlay educators to talk to students.